

Certificate In Basic Screen Printing

Introduction

- History of Screen Printing
- Printing terminology and overview
- Screen Printing Machinery

Preparation of Artwork - Theory / Practical

- Artwork prepared for printing
- Various methods of preparing artwork
- Supplies
- Lettering and computer graphic

Preparation of stencils. Printing theory /practical

- All methods of stencil making
- The Frame
- The Fabric
- Cleaning/Washing
- Exposure
- Trouble Shooting

Preparation Screen

- Single Color Screen Printing
- Inks & Chemicals

Printing Procedures:

- Machinery setup
- Basic 1 color printing
- Quality Control
- Trouble Shooting

Maintenance / Housekeeping

Storage / Quality Control

Business Setup

- Storage of inks & solvents
- Safety/layout
- General business practice

Course Aim

This course is aimed at students wishing to acquire knowledge in Silk Screen Printing. It is also tailored to anyone intending to open their own company as a cottage industry.

Course Outline

This course covers both theory and practical lessons. It covers all aspects of artwork preparation using conventional as well as Computer Graphic methods. Other subjects covered are stencil making , plant layout and use of various materials.

Certificate In Basic Screen Printing

Students who have successfully completed will be awarded a Certificate by IOP - UK, Malaysia Branch.

Certificate is awarded based on the following:

- Attendance - 10%
- Practical projects - 70%
- End of course objective exam - 20%

Course Duration

12 weeks (3 months)

Course Fees

RM2,500.00 (inclusive of materials & chemicals)

